Home, Sweet Home

During the last six weeks, the Lord has allowed us to spend some wonderful time with our home church, Faith Baptist Church of Temple, TX.

During our past furloughs, I scheduled meetings for nearly every service of our time in the States. However, this time the Lord didn't allow that to happen, and we have been able to not only attend and be ministered to in our own home church, but also allowed us to minister to the wonderful people that God has knit together at Faith. I've had the opportunity to preach a series of sermons on Wednesday nights, as well as teach a two-day couples' retreat which was a special blessing. God has given us a wonderful, loving sponsoring church for which we are very thankful to Him. Thank you, Faith Baptist Church, for loving us and allowing us to be your missionaries. We love you and appreciate you very much!

First To Fly

By the time you receive this letter, my family and I will have taken our oldest son, Jonathan, to begin college. As it really hasn't happened yet, we are not really sure what our emotions will be. Beth and I both realize that this is a natural part of "growing up", but we will still miss our little "firecracker" (Jonathan was born on July 4th).

Jonathan has grown into a fine, God-fearing young man, with a desire to serve His Lord as He directs his life. Pray for Jon (and Daddy and Momma) as he begins this new chapter in his life. We are extremely proud of the young man that he has grown to become and are looking forward to all that the Lord has for him in his life.

Furlough Future

Although we have enjoyed our time at our home church, we are about to begin travelling extensively in the next few months. In September we will still be in the Texas area visiting churches, but, during October and November, we will be in churches in Texas, Kansas, Illinois, Indiana and North Dakota.

We need to raise some much needed regular financial support over the next few months. We praise the Lord for McPherson Road Baptist Church of Ft. Worth, TX, who is the newest member of our family of supporting churches. Thank you and may God bless you very much!

Prayer Requests
